3 FAH-1 H-2422 AUTHORITY

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

(State only)

(Applies to Foreign Services employees)

- a. The procedures outlined below are based on provisions of law cited in 3 FAM 2421 and the delegations of authority referenced in 3 FAM 2422.b. The DG has delegated responsibility for the management and administration of the Career Development Program (CDP) to the directors of the Office of Career Development and Assignments (HR/CDA) and the Office of Performance Evaluation (HR/PE), jointly and for the open assignments system to the director of HR/CDA. HR/CDA's assignment panels (3 FAH-1 H-2423.3) exercise their functions on behalf of the DG who retains the right to amend or reject the panels' decisions.
- b. The DG may also, at any time, direct your assignment, on the basis of service need, whether or not you have bid on the position.

3 FAH-1 H-2423 PRINCIPLES

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

(State only)

(Applies to Foreign Services employees)

- a. The Department's CDP programs for the FS derive from statutory authority in 22 U.S.C. 4023, and from regulations that are included in 3 FAM 2420.
- b. The assignment of members of the FS is based on provisions of law contained in 3 FAM 2421 and the regulations cited in 3 FAM 2420 as a whole.

- c. An assignment, for the purposes of this subchapter, will be to any FS position for more than six months. For assignments to overseas positions, you must fulfill the following minimum continuous service requirements in order that the assignment be considered as a completed one for the purposes of this subchapter: 10 months for a one-year Tour of Duty (TOD), 20 months for a two-year TOD, and 30 months for a TOD of 3 years or more. For non-standard TODs overseas, the minimum continuous service requirement will be at least 83% of the period of assignment.
- d. In considering your assignment, the DG's paramount consideration is the needs of the Service. 3 FAM 2424.2 outlines other concerns that are taken into account during the assignment process.

3 FAH-1 H-2423.1 Worldwide Availability

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

(State only)

(Applies to Foreign Services employees)

- a. 22 U.S.C. 3901(a)(4) is the legal basis for this subsection; these provisions of are amplified in 3 FAM 2424.
- b. We may assign you to any position, on a worldwide basis, as we determine necessary in the best interests of US foreign policy and the efficient functioning of the Service.
- c. The decision of an assignment panel (3 FAH-1 H-2425.3), or of the DG on review or appeal (3 FAH-1 H2425.3-1) is binding upon you. If you refuse to accept such a decision, you are subject to disciplinary action, including separation from the service per 3 FAM 4300.

3 FAH-1 H-2423.2 Continuous Service in the United States (SOP A-4)

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

(State only)

(Applies to Foreign Services employees)

- a. You may not serve longer than six years in the United States without a waiver from the DG. Such a waiver will only be issued in certain special circumstances. The waiver will be issued for one or two years, depending on the reason.

- b. The DG will only consider an extension beyond eight years of domestic service under extraordinary circumstances.
- c. For purposes of application of the six and eight year rules, you must have satisfied the requirements for a completed assignment overseas, as specified in 3 FAH-1 H-2423 (c).

3 FAH-1 H-2424 FOREIGN SERVICE (FS) CAREER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

- a. The Career Development Program (CDP) is designed to prepare you for senior levels in your specific career track. The CDP is focused on the development of the professional, leadership, language and technical skills you will require at such levels through training and a range of assignments and experiences. It is also designed to ensure that Service needs are met.
- b. The Program is based on four principles. Your career should reflect observance of these principles over time.
 - (1) Operational effectiveness, including a breadth of experience in several regions and functions;
 - (2) Leadership and management effectiveness;
 - (3) Sustained professional language and/or technical proficiency; and
 - (4) Responsiveness to Service needs.
- c. For an explanation as to how the CDP's requirements relate to eligibility for promotion into the Senior FS (for generalists) or into this or other professional-level grades (for Specialists), see the Procedural Precepts for FS promotion boards at 3 FAH-1 H-2320. See also SOP B-24 regarding waiver provisions for the CDP requirement of service at a hardship/danger pay post.

3 FAH-1 H-2425 THE OPEN ASSIGNMENTS SYSTEM

3 FAH-1 H-2425.1 Purpose

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

- a. The open assignments system (SOP A-1) is designed to obtain the most effective match of personnel to FS position vacancies in the Department and at posts overseas in a transparent and equitable manner. The paramount consideration remains meeting Service need. To the extent possible, it also considers your assignment preferences as well as those of the bureaus.
- b. The system also takes into account other statutory and regulatory requirements, including mandatory career development and training. Assignments overseas, including for the purposes of career development requirements, will only be considered as completed if they satisfy the continuous service requirements outlined in 3 FAH-1 H-2423 (b).

3 FAH-1 H-2425.2 The Role of the Office of Career Developments & Assignments

3 FAH-1 H-2425.2-1 Structure and Organization of HR/CDA

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

(State only)

(Applies to Foreign Services employees)

- a. The director of HR/CDA, and his or her deputy, is responsible for the management of this office and its personnel. The Director may create divisions of the office, as he or she believes will help ensure the efficient operation of the Office and for the administration of the open assignments system.
- b. The director will ensure that information on the responsibilities of such division(s) is available to you so that you know whom to contact in connection with your assignment process.
- c. The employees in HR/CDA are divided into three basic groups. While each group has specific responsibilities, all balance these with a parallel responsibility to the Department and its overall personnel policy.
- d. The first group advises you and your colleagues on career development and assignment issues and reflects your preferences in the assignment process. Members of this group also provide guidance to employees regarding the elements of the CDP (ref above). The second group represents the interests of the Department's bureaus. The third group processes the messages that authorize your travel to and from post and handles related administrative issues.

3 FAH-1 H-2425.2-2 Operation of HR/CDA

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

- a. HR will operate, and maintain, an electronic system for submitting and recording your assignment preferences (bids). We will consider as valid only those bids that you submit via this system unless, in extraordinary circumstances, we authorize submission of bids in an alternate written form.
- b. We will also maintain, and make available to all employees, standard operating procedures (SOPs) which complement and provide further detail for this subchapter of the FAH. We may change these procedures in the interest of greater efficiency, clarity, and equity as the need arises. Any material changes that affect the operation of the Open Assignments System will be reflected in the series of annual messages (see 3 FAH-1 H-2425.4) available to all employees prior to and during each assignment cycle.
- c. We will, once you have been duly assigned, inform you in writing (A-16) of that decision. At an appropriate point, and in advance of your need to transfer, we will also issue you the necessary orders (3 FAH-1 H-3760) that will authorize use of departmental funds to pay, as appropriate, for travel, training, per diem, and other expenses you incur between postings.

3 FAH-1 H-2425.3 Assignment Panels

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

- a. Except as indicated below, only assignment panels, subject to review by and appeals to the DG (3 FAH-1 H-2425.3-1) are authorized to assign you and other Department personnel to FS positions.
- b. The only exceptions are as follows:
 - (1) Directed assignments including those of entry-level career candidate members of the FS (3 FAH-1 H-2425.8 F) and for certain limited non-career appointments (3 FAH -1 H 2425.8 M);
 - (2) Assignments based on the DG's decision to reverse a panel decision (3 FAH-1 H-2422); and

- (3) Chiefs of mission (CM), designated chiefs of mission, ambassadors, deputy assistant secretaries of State, deputy chiefs of mission and principal officers (3 FAH-1 H-2425.8 B and C).
- c. While the panels record these assignments for administrative purposes they may not amend them.
 - d. The DG may decide at any point, and in interest of efficiency or equity, to change the structure, membership, or operation of the assignment panels.
 - e. At present, the DG has authorized the operation of two panels. The mid-level panel assigns FS-02, FS-03, tenured FS-04 generalists as well as mid-level specialists who are at-grade or are being proposed for stretch assignments within the FS/FP-02 to FS/FP-03 range. The interdivisional panel makes all assignments other than those specifically reserved to the Mid-Level Panel, including, but not limited to, all assignments to long-term training; detail assignments, details and transfers.
 - f. The director of HR/CDA chairs the Interdivisional Panel. The deputy director chairs the mid-level panel.
 - g. Only HR/CDA employees may serve as members of a panel. Panels are constituted, however, so that both your interests and those of the bureaus are fairly represented.
 - h. The deliberations of the panels are protected. Panel members are not authorized to discuss, outside of HR, the specifics of how a decision was reached or how individual members voted. This is to protect the ability of the panel to be forthright and frank in its discussion of proposed assignments and in order to preserve its ability to reach the best decisions possible.

3 FAH-1 H-2425.3-1 Appeals

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

- a. You have 10 days to appeal a panel decision, in writing, to the DG. If you are appealing a decision of the panel to assign you to a position, you must identify specific reasons that service in such a position would impose undue hardship on you personally or professionally. You may also appeal a decision of a panel not to assign you to a position for which the panel considered you.
- b. Bureaus of the Department may also appeal a panel decision, within the same time frame, to the DG. Bureau appeals must delineate why the assignment of the employee would run counter to the efficient operation of the office or post.

- c. The decision of the DG will be final and binding upon you as well as on a bureau. There is no appeal beyond the DG in either case. Your failure to accept the decision by will make you subject to disciplinary action outlined in 3 FAM 4300.
- d. You may not appeal a directed assignment.

3 FAH-1 H-2425.4 Open Assignments Notifications

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

- a. We will announce, on an annual basis, the rules for filing assignment preferences (bids) during an annual assignment cycle. With respect to bargaining unit positions, we negotiate implementing procedures and appropriate arrangements for employees who are adversely affected by management's assignment actions with the American Foreign Service Association.
- b. We will also inform you of the related procedures regarding the operation of the open assignment system. We will ensure that this information is made available to all employees serving domestically and overseas. You are responsible for familiarizing yourself with all provisions relevant to your assignment situation and observing all rules and guidelines that apply to you.
- c. We will not normally change fundamental procedures, once the assignment cycle has begun, although we reserve the right to do so if Service need so requires. In that event, we will notify you as soon as feasible and permit you reasonable time to make any changes in your bids that may be required under the revised procedures.
- d. We will publish a list of all available positions (provided by the Department's bureaus under guidelines we supply) to be filled in an annual assignment cycle. The list will include such out-year positions as are designated under standards published as noted above. In addition, we will advertise, in general, other positions (such as assignments and details outside the Department, 3 FAH-1 H-2425.8 I available to employees in the assignment cycle.

3 FAH-1 H-2425.5 Terms and Conditions of Bidding

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

Certain issues and concerns will be relevant to the bidding and assignment process. These may include, but are not limited to the following:

- (1) The procedure that the panels will follow in determining assignments. These may include, among others, when you may be identified for a specific assignment (SOP B-3), or when you may be designated for such an assignment (SOP B-4). With regard to the latter point, if you fail to file bids in a manner and by the deadline we specify, you are also subject to being designated for assignment;
- (2) The schedule that the panels will follow in making assignments to certain positions, for instance the time periods when you are eligible to be assigned depending on the nature of the position and/or your grade. In that regard, we will also advise when you may be brought as a candidate for positions that are ranked either above or below your grade (SOP B-2);
- (3) For what length of time, or tour of duty (TOD, SOP A-3) you will be assigned to positions domestically or overseas. In addition to standard TODs, we intend to maintain specific tours of duty at certain kinds of posts, the length of which may be affected by factors including, but not limited to, hardship differential, service need differential, danger pay, and the responsibilities of certain positions. Service overseas may also entitle you to home leave (3 FAM 3430 and SOP A-13) and/or rest and recreation (R&R, 3 FAM 3720);
- (4) The procedures that are associated with positions at offices and/or posts that have insufficient bidders for vacancies, such as historically difficult to staff posts (SOP B-19) or hard to fill positions (SOP B-18);
- (5) Special procedures that may include, but are not limited to, the length of time that you may serve continuously in the US (SOPs A-4 and A-5) and applicable fair-share service bidding requirements;
- (6) Special allowances available to those who are assigned to certain difficult to staff positions (SOP B-22);
- (7) Conditions and deadlines for requesting an extension or curtailment (SOP A-6);
- (8) Considerations that pertain to all assignments to or involving training, including your eligibility for same and any bidding requirements (SOP A-7);

- (9) Which positions are language-designated, the requirements for bidding on these, and how or when bureaus may apply for language waivers (SOP A-8);
- (10) When bridge assignments may be appropriate, what options are available to the employee in terms of assignment versus temporary duty (TDY) and the financial implications for each (SOP A-9);
- (11) How we consider leave without pay (LWOP) requests and what financial and benefit considerations pertain to those granted this status (SOPs A-12 & A-12A);
- (12) When a bureau may request creation of a short tour position outside the parameters of the open assignment system, how we will consider such a request, and how an employee may fill it (SOP A-14);
- (13) How and when a bureau may request that a volunteer cable be issued, the conditions under which an employee may respond to such a cable, and how we will consider filling the position (SOP A - 15); and
- (14) How the Department will fill urgent (now) vacancies and who is eligible to bid on such positions (SOP A-22).

3 FAH-1 H-2425.6 Your role in the Open Assignment Process

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

- a. Your active participation in the open assignment process is critical to its effective functioning and to your own career development. It is your responsibility to read the material we provide for each assignment cycle and to understand the context in which you will be sending us your bids for onward assignment.
- b. It is your responsibility to file your bids, complying with the rules and guidelines we announce by the deadline specified. If you fail to do that, or you do not update your bid list as may be required by the open assignments process, you may be designated for any available assignment (SOP B-4).

3 FAH-1 H-2425.7 Role of the Bureaus in the Open Assignment Process

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

Bureaus in the Department play an important role in the assignment process. Bureaus make their staffing needs, and assignment preferences (except in the case of entry level career candidates), known through those members of HR/CDA who represent their interests in the assignment process.

3 FAH-1 H-2425.8 Special Assignment Considerations

(CT:POH-115; 08-31-2005)

A. Security and Medical Clearances

12 FAM 231.4 governs the question of security clearances in the context of assignments. 16 FAM 200 controls medical clearances.

- Security Clearances: In addition, assignment to certain designated criteria countries requires an additional clearance (SOP B-11).
- Medical Clearances (SOP B-12): A medical clearance for an assignment overseas is valid for two years, or for the length of the assignment, whichever is longer.

You are eligible for assignment overseas, from a medical perspective, if you hold Class 1 (worldwide available) or Class 2 (limited availability) clearances.

Special assignment procedures (post approvals) apply if you or your EFMs (as defined, for the purposes of this sub-section at 16 FAM 100 have Class 2 medical clearances (see 16 FAM 200). They are designed to ensure that we can make the best possible assignment in the interests of the Service while taking into account your medical situation.

Special assignment procedures also apply for employees with children (who are EFMs) who MED/ECS has identified as having special educational needs.

You are responsible for ensuring that you comply with the above-noted procedures. If you fail to do this, we may designate you for any position worldwide for which MED clears you whether or not you have bid on the position.

B. Chief of Mission Appointments and Deputy Assistant Secretary of State Assignments (SOP C-1)

The deputy secretary chairs a committee, known as the d committee, which reviews candidates to serve as chiefs of mission (COM), designated COM's, ambassadors, and also as deputy assistant secretaries (das) of the department.

The deputy secretary selects members of senior Department management to serve on the committee.

1. COMs, Designated COMs, and Ambassadors

- a. COMs: In most cases the regional bureaus will make recommendations to the DG of candidates to be considered by the D committee for appointment as chief of mission (at bilateral and multilateral posts). The D committee reviews candidates that HR subsequently proposes (SOP C-1) for such positions. The proposal is made after inter-Departmental consultations under established guidelines and following a preliminary security and suitability review. The committee then selects one candidate and forwards that name to the Secretary for his/her consideration. Candidates approved by the Secretary are forwarded to the President.

In general most career FS appointees in these positions serve for 3 years. There is, however, no term per se to a COM appointment as appointees serve at the pleasure of the President. COMs are appointed by the President and require the advice and consent of the Senate.

- Presidential appointment: YES
 - Require advice and consent of the senate: YES
 - May elect presidential pay: YES (career FS only)
- b. Designated COMs: 22 U.S.C. 3982 (provides the President authority to "assign a career member of the Service as Charge d'Affaires or otherwise as the head of a mission (or as the head of a United States office abroad which is designated under 22 U.S.C. 3902(a)(3) by the Secretary of State as diplomatic in nature) for such period as the public interest may require." The President's authority under this section was delegated to the Secretary of State by E.O. 12293 of February 23, 1981. The Secretary has further delegated this authority to the Undersecretary for Management under delegation of authority No. 148-1 dated September 9, 1981.
- Presidential appointment: NO

- May elect presidential pay: YES
- c. Personal rank of ambassador: 22 U.S.C. 3942(a)(2)(B)(i) authorizes the President to confer the personal rank of ambassador for a period not to exceed six months. The purpose of this authority is to accord appropriate status to senior U.S. representatives conducting high-level functions either domestically or overseas.
 - Presidential appointment: NO
 - May elect presidential pay: NO

2. Deputy Assistant Secretaries of State (DAS)

The D committee also considers candidates that the assistant secretaries of the Department propose to serve for DAS vacancies. The committee forwards the name of the candidate it approves for each vacancy to the Secretary for his/her approval.

- May elect presidential pay: NO

C. Deputy Chiefs of Mission (DCM) and Principal Officers (PO) Assignments (SOP C-2)

The DG chairs a committee, known as the DCM committee that reviews and proposes candidates to serve as DCMs and POs at positions overseas.

The DG selects members of department management to serve on the committee. The committee reviews, in consultation with HR and the relevant bureaus, the eligible bidders on DCM and PO positions. The committee then decides on a list of candidates to fill the position.

The committee sends the list of DCM candidates to the COM; the COM may select from among the candidates to fill the position. If there is no COM at post, or in some cases if the COM is to depart post before the DCM arrives, the committee sends the list of candidates to the Assistant Secretary of the relevant bureau. The Assistant Secretary, in these cases, selects the DCM.

The DCM Committee itself selects candidates to serve as POs.

D. Office Management Specialist (OMS) Assignments for Senior Management and COM's (SOP C-7)

Department principals (undersecretaries and above), assistant secretaries and equivalents, deputy assistant secretaries (DAS), and officials referred to in 3 FAH-1 H-2425.8 B(1) above (hereafter, and for the purposes of this sub-section only, ambassadors) may select an OMS regardless of whether or not he or she is currently available for assignment except as indicated below.

The assignment panel will take the necessary action to curtail, as needed, the OMS from his or her current tour and transfer him or her expeditiously (with due regard to allowed leave, and related re-payment waivers) to the position in question.

At a post with two ambassador-level OMS positions the ambassador may select an OMS for the more junior position only from the list of current bidders.

The TOD for an ambassador's OMS will be the standard TOD for the post.

E. Specialists (SOP B-9)

Specialists are subject to all of the rules and procedures of the open assignments system except where noted in SOP B-9.

Specialists will normally be assigned to positions in their areas of specialization. Specialists may, however, be assigned to positions outside their designated skill code in order under certain conditions (see SOP B-9).

F. Entry Level Career Candidates (SOPs B-9 and C-8)

This subsection applies to entry-level generalists and specialists except where noted.

The assignment of entry-level FS employees entails different bidding requirements, open assignment notifications, assignment seasons, and TOD.

Your first two assignments will generally be to overseas posts except as Service need dictates. We direct, on behalf of the DG, the first, and in most cases, the second assignments. You may not appeal these assignments.

We consider a range of factors in deciding on your assignment in addition to service need. These may include, among others:

- Your requirements for tenure and career development
- Family, medical and special educational issues as noted in 3 FAH-1 H-2425.8 A
- Timing issues relating to departure dates of current position incumbents and any training you require for an assignment
- Your previous assignment(s), including any hardship and/or danger differentials for those assignment(s)

Your TOD for your first two assignments will normally not exceed two years. In the event that you are approaching the end of your limited non-career appointment (3 FAM 2240), we will adjust your TOD to take this fact into account.

For entry-level generalists only: Your eligibility for language training will be limited until such time as you may be tenured. We will endeavor, however, to afford you an appropriate opportunity in your assignments to meet the requirement that untenured generalists reach a given proficiency in a foreign language before being eligible to be tenured (see 3 FAM 2246.6).

G. Tandems and Nepotism

(1) Tandem Assignments (SOP A-11A)

Subject to the non-discrimination provisions of 5 U.S.C. 2301(b)(2) and 22 U.S.C. 3905(b), which prohibit, among other things, discrimination on the basis of marital status, we will make a reasonable effort to assign both members of a tandem (see 3 FAH-1 H-2421.7) to the same post in positions appropriate to their class levels and qualifications.

In order to be treated as a tandem for assignment purposes, the couple must follow all of the guidelines we identify in this regard.

Tandems must know that there is no guarantee that both spouses will be assigned to the same post. In the event that such assignment does not prove practicable or possible, or could only be accomplished by means of disallowed discrimination, we will consult with each member of the tandem on available options. Such options may include separate assignments or leave without pay (LWOP)(see 3 FAH-1 H-2425.5 K). In the event that the spouse on LWOP elects not to bid on such a position, we may identify him or her for the vacancy.

The TODs of members of a tandem couple will normally comply with established policies except to the extent that we may decide otherwise under established guidelines.

(2) Nepotism (SOP A-11B)

See Department regulations at 3 FAM 1300, Appendix A.

H. Training (SOP A-7)

You may be assigned to long-term training or short-term training, as defined in SOP-7, as a part of your career development or in the context of your onward assignment.

You are required to take certain training as part of your career development, in order to be assigned to a position with supervisory responsibilities, and otherwise as law or regulation may prescribe. You will be advised, in advance, of when we require you to take such training.

The Foreign Service Institute (FSI) (13 FAM 121) generally administers and provides all training which occurs under the Department's jurisdiction.

I. Positions outside the Department (SOP A-10)

We anticipate that, in most cases, we will advertise opportunities to serve in positions outside the Department as part of the notification you receive during an assignment cycle. In most cases we will organize special competitions for these positions. We will inform you of any special bidding procedures that apply in this regard.

(1) Detail assignments

The legal basis for detail assignments to positions outside the FS is 22 U.S.C. 3983 and 22 U.S.C. 2685.

Detail assignments are intended to benefit you and the Department. They benefit you by broadening your foreign policy skills and expertise. They also contribute to overall interagency cooperation and provide expertise and support to organizations involved with foreign affairs activities.

Detail assignments may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Office of a member of congress or congressional office
- Other agencies of the federal government
- State and municipal governments
- Academic institutions
- US armed forces war colleges
- International organizations
- Non-governmental organizations

Detail assignments may not exceed four years of continuous service unless the undersecretary for management approves an extension under special circumstances.

If we detail assign you to the office of a member of Congress or to an office of the Senate or House of Representatives), you will have the status of an employee of the Congress for the purpose of payment of travel and other expenses.

(2) Details to international organizations

We may (22 U.S.C. 3343) detail you to an international organization for a period not to exceed five years. The Secretary may extend such a detail up to an additional three years if he/she determines this would be in the national interest. You will remain an employee of the Department while on such a detail.

(3). Transfers (secondments) to International Organizations

The legal basis for this sub-section 5 U.S.C. 3581 - 3584.

An international organization, for the purposes of this section, is a public international organization, or international-organization preparatory commission in which the US government participates.

We will only consider a transfer if it is requested by an international organization and if you agree with the proposal. Transfers fall outside the provisions of the Open Assignment Process.

If we transfer you to an international organization, you will be separated from the Service for the length of time you are employed by the receiving international organization. You will retain, however, your rights and benefits as a career member of the Service, during your period of separation and may be eligible for re-employment consistent with the statutory provisions cited above.

J. Assignments to CS Positions

The Director General (DG) may (22 U.S.C. 3983(a)(1)) assign you to a civil service (CS) position in the Department. The DG will generally act in response to a request by a bureau; in any case, you may not initiate such a request. Such assignments would also require the temporary conversion of the CS position to a FS position, subject to HR procedures in this area, for the duration of your assignment.

Such assignments fall outside the parameters of the open assignments process.

K. Overcomplement (SOP B-16)

We may assign you to overcomplement status in a bureau for specified reasons of a temporary nature, rather than to a position in the Department. It is our intention that your status in over complement be limited to the minimum time period necessary to make you available for reassignment or separation.

In general if you are returning from overseas, you will be assigned to over complement in the bureau that has jurisdiction over the post from which you return.

We will assign you to HR over complement only with the approval of the DG or the director of HR/CDA.

L. Central Medical Complement (SOP B-7)

The purpose of the central medical complement (CMC) is to provide a temporary assignment designation for individuals who are medically evacuated to the U.S. for hospitalization or equivalent treatment and/or prolonged medical treatment that is incapacitating in terms of a regular work schedule. Only the medical director (MD), or his or her representative, may authorize us to assign you to the CMC. The MD will authorize assignment only if you have a medical condition requiring your absence from post for at least 90 days that also entails:

- (a) Hospitalization or equivalent treatment in the US or otherwise unable to work for 30 days or more; or
- (b) An inability to work, or able to report only intermittently while undergoing medical treatment that is expected to extend over a protracted period.

During assignment to the CMC representatives in M/MED will maintain contact with you and your medical providers to keep informed of the medical situation, and will maintain time and attendance reporting. The Medical Director or designee will notify HR/CDA when you are medically available for reassignment. You will then have the opportunity to file bids for available vacancies, and all provisions of the open assignment process will apply. HR/CDA will make every effort to assign you expeditiously to an appropriate vacancy. Except under extraordinary circumstances, an employee will not remain on the CMC for more than six months.
